

CALL FOR PRESENTERS

21st. ANNUAL OREGON TRAINING CONFERENCE of
OREGON ADOLESCENT SEX OFFENDER TREATMENT NETWORK

May 4th-6th 2005
At the Valley River Inn Hotel in Eugene Oregon

OASOTN is pleased to announce this call for papers for the 21st. Annual state-wide training conference scheduled for May 4th, 5th, 6th, 2005 in Salem Oregon. The conference is designed for professionals in the field of adolescent sexual abuse to explore new ideas, evaluate current practices, network and promote self care with other providers. The focus this year will be on Evidence Based Practice with measurable outcomes as applied to adolescent sex abuse assessment, treatment and supervision. The theme will be "Treatment Works; Here's the evidence!"

OASOTN is made up of members of juvenile justice, child protective services, mental health, private-nonprofit social service agencies, and independent treatment providers. Conference attendance is expected to be 150-200 people. We invite you to submit proposals for 90 to 180 minute workshops as well as day long, or conference length seminars.

Proposals due December 2, 2004 at 5pm.

Respond by letter or E mail to:

John Harkins
Jackson County Community Justice
609 W. 10th. St.
Medford, Oregon 96501

or harkinjr@jacksoncounty.org (Must be compatible with Word Perfect)

Oregon Adolescent Sex Offender Treatment Network