

Oregon Adolescent Sex Offending Treatment Network
Annual OASOTN Conference May 1-3, 2023.

Scholarship Application Information

This year, the OASOTN Board will provide scholarship opportunities for professionals to attend our annual conference. The scholarship recipients will be awarded the cost of the two-day training (please note that the preconference is not included though you are welcome to register for just that day). This year we are proud to present three scholarship opportunities. The board will select from the list of preferred categories below:

Regional Scholarship:

This scholarship is available to the agencies outside of the Portland Metro area for whom extensive travel is required.

Bi-Lingual/ Bi-Cultural Scholarship:

This scholarship is available for clinicians who are Bi-lingual and or Bi-cultural and are interested in expanding their practice to include juvenile sex offense treatment.

Interdisciplinary Scholarship:

This scholarship is available to those working or current students in fields outside of juvenile sex offense treatment and supervision, such as DHS, educators, medical field, attorney, etc. This scholarship is also available to parents or foster/proctor parents of youth who have engaged in harmful sexual behavior.

Student/Intern:

This scholarship is available to students or interns showing interest in developing in the field of adolescent sex offending treatment regardless of discipline.

Please complete the steps below to apply for each scholarship:

1. Complete the OASOTN 2023 Scholarship Application.
2. E-mail the forms to Kelly Crane: kcrane3@peoplepc.com
3. Attn: OASOTN Scholarship Application.
4. All scholarship applications need to be received by April 3, 2023; applications received after this date will not be considered.
5. All scholarship recipients will be notified by April 8, 2023.

Requirements:

To receive this scholarship, you must agree to the following:

- Attend all sessions during the conference.
- You will be responsible for attending the 2023 OASOTN conference once you have been notified of receiving the scholarship. If you are unable to attend after being awarded a scholarship, due to an emergency, a written letter must be submitted to the board within two weeks of the conference. Your scholarship will then be awarded to one of the Scholarship Committees alternate winners.
