

SAVE THE DATE

OREGON ADOLESCENT SEXUAL OFFENDING TREATMENT NETWORK'S
PRE-CONFERENCE IS SCHEDULED FOR MAY 6, 2024

Andrew Monroe, MSW, LICSW, LCSW

WHO: Andrew Monroe, Psychological Clinician with National Center on Sexual Behavior of Youth (NCSBY), Center for Child Abuse and Neglect (CCAN), and University of Oklahoma Health Sciences Center

WHAT: One-day Pre-Conference will focus on an introduction to children with problematic sexual behaviors (12 and under), safety planning, reunification, caregiver engagement and ways to move the state forward in this work.

WHERE: Graduate Hotel, Eugene, OR, www.graduatehotels.com/eugene/

WHEN: May 6, 2024, 9:00-5:00

WHY: The State of Oregon is moving forward to address problematic sexual behavior by our youth before they become involved in the system

HOW: Registration will open February 21st at www.OASOTN.org

Opportunity to earn CEU credits through National Association of Social Workers (NASW)

STAY TUNED FOR SAVE THE DATE AND BROCHURE FOR
OASOTN'S MAIN CONFERENCE, MAY 7-8, 2024